GROUP QUESTION Question: Name an economic problem that caused the Articles of Confederation to fail.	BLUE QUESTION Question: Large states like Pennsylvania and Virginia favored this plan's () form of representation for the legislative branch, because it allotted votes based on
CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: The Constitution lacks this word (), and instead uses this word () to define the United State of America's system of government.	BLUE QUESTION Question: What document was not included in the original Constitution, that later had to be added to protect civil liberties?
GROUP QUESTION Question: What branch of government did the Connecticut Compromise establish, and how did it divide authority?	BLUE QUESTION Question: Southern states feared tariffs would hurt trade, while Northern states wanted the protection from outside competition. What is the compromise?
BLUE QUESTION Question: The Three-Fifths Compromise favored states by counting as 3/5 of a person for the population count.	CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: Northern states opposed slave trade, while the Southern ones claimed it helped their economy. The compromise was to wait until the year when Congress would be able to ban trade.
BLUE QUESTION Question: The Constitution was adopted on, which is now the day we nationally celebrate as Constitution Day.	BLUE QUESTION Question: When electing the President of the United States one side wanted representation in voting for all individuals, while others feared the electorate would be too to vote on the matter so it should be left to Answer: Virginia Plan, Population	Answer:- Inability to raise taxes -Congress could not regulate trade -No uniform system of currency or banking.

Answer: Bill of Rights	Answer: Democracy, Republic
Answer: Commerce Compromise – tariffs were allowed for imports to the US but not exports.	Answer: -Legislative Branch -House of Representatives (representation by population) and Senate (equal representation)
Answer:1808	Answer: Southern States, Slaves
Answer: Equal, Uneducated, State Senates	Answer: September 17 th , 1787

BLUE QUESTION Question: What powers did the executive branch have under the Articles of Confederation?	RED QUESTION Question: Article IV discusses the balance of power between the and governments.
GROUP QUESTION	RED QUESTION
Question: Name a problem of legislative inefficiencies that caused the Articles of the Confederation to fail.	Question: The Exceptions Clause in Article III, Section 2, Clause 2 gives original jurisdiction to the Supreme Court in cases about
BLUE QUESTION	RED QUESTION
Question: Article I enumerates the power of the branch.	Question: The Elastic Clause (or Necessary and Proper Clause) gives the Legislative Branch what powers?
BLUE QUESTION Question: Article II enumerates the power of	RED QUESTION Question: The state of did the branch.	not attend the Constitutional Convention, and was the last to ratify the document in BLUE QUESTION Question: Article III enumerates the power of	CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: What is the nickname given to the
the branch.	Constitution for all of the agreements required to write it?

Answer: Federal, State	Answer: No power (There was not an executive branch under the articles of confederation.)
Answer: Ambassadors, public ministers, or counselors from foreign nations	Answer: -No proportional representation of the peopleDifficulty achieving the threshold of 9/13 states to pass any legislationAn amendment to the Constitution requires unanimous state supportNo Congressional power to raise an army.
Answer: The power to make all laws necessary and proper for carrying out their responsibilities as enumerated by the Constitution.	Answer: Legislative
Answer: Rhode Island, 1790	Answer: Executive

Answer: Bundle of Compromises Answer: Judicial

GROUP QUESTION	CONSENSUS QUESTION
Question: What is an example of a legislative branch check over the judicial branch?	Question: What are the two steps to altering the constitution? What are the options for completing each step?
GROUP QUESTION Question: What is the example of an executive branch check over the judicial branch?	RED QUESTION Question: What are the first ten Amendments to the Constitution called?
RED QUESTION Question: Who was elected President of the Constitutional Convention?	RED QUESTION Question: How many amendments to the Constitution are there?
CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: How were the deputies to the Constitutional Convention chosen?	RED QUESTION Question: What is the only amendment to be repealed (can be answered with the name OR number)?
RED QUESTION Question: Who is called the Father of the Constitution?	RED QUESTION Question: What is the term length for a U.S. House of Representative?

Answer: 1) An amendment must be proposed. It can originate in Congress, with each house proposing the amendment with a two-thirds vote. OR it can originate in the states, with two-thirds of the state legislatures calling on Congress to hold a Constitutional Convention.

2) The amendment must be ratified. Three-fourths of the state legislatures must approve of it OR three-fourths of the states must approve of it via ratifying conventions.

Answer:

- -Creates lower courts
- -May remove judges through impeachment
- Senate approves appointments of judges.

Answer: The Bill of Rights

Answer:

- President appoints Supreme Court and other federal judges.
- -Enforces laws.

Answer: 27 Answer: George Washington

Answer: Prohibition, the 18th amendment.

Answer: They were appointed by the legislatures of each state.

Answer: 2 years Answer: James Madison

RED QUESTION

RED QUESTION

Question: What is the term length for a U.S. Senator?	Question: What are the first seven words of the Preamble of the US Constitution?
RED QUESTION Question: What is the term length for the U.S. President?	RED QUESTION Question: What are the two steps to the impeachment process, and who is in charge of each step?
RED QUESTION Question: How old must you be to run for the U.S. House of Representatives?	RED QUESTION Question: What is the purpose of each of the three branches of government?
DED OVERTION	DED OVERTION
RED QUESTION Question: How old must you be to run for the U.S. Senate?	RED QUESTION Question: How many members are there in each house of Congress?
RED QUESTION Question: How old must you be to run for U.S. President?	RED QUESTION Question: Fill in the blanks in the Preamble of the Constitution – We the of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect restablish Justice, insure Tranquility, provide for the common, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

Answer: We the People of the United States	Answer: 6 years
Answer: The House has the power to impeach; the Senate carries out the impeachment trial with the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court presiding.	Answer: 4 years
Answer: The legislature makes the laws, the executive enforces the laws, and the judiciary interprets the laws.	Answer: 25 years old.
Answer: There are 100 members of the Senate and 435 members of the House.	Answer: 30 years old.
Answer: People, Union, Domestic, Defense, Liberty	Answer: 35 years old.

CDOUD QUESTION	DI HE OHECTION
GROUP QUESTION Question: What is an example of a legislative branch check over the executive branch?	BLUE QUESTION Question: What are the protections granted by the First Amendment?
branch check over the executive branch.	the First Amenument.
BLUE QUESTION Question: How is the number of members each	BLUE QUESTION Question: Can a presidential veto be state can send to each house of Congress	overridden? If so, how?
determined?
DI HE OTHERWOY	CONCENCIA OTECATON
BLUE QUESTION Question: What is the length of the term of	CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: What precedent was set by the office of a United States Supreme Court Judge?	Supreme Court case McCulloch v. Maryland?
DI HE OHECTION	CONCENCIA OLIECTION
BLUE QUESTION Question: Who elects the President?	CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: What precedent was set by the Supreme Court case Plessy v. Ferguson? In what subsequent case was this precedent overturned?
DI HE OHECTION	CONCENCIA OTIECTION
BLUE QUESTION Question: Which court case set the precedent	CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: Why is the warning of rights given to
for judicial review?	criminal suspects before questioning by the police called "Miranda Rights"?
	r

Answer: The First Amendment grants freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of assembly, freedom of religion, and freedom of petition.

Answer:

- May override presidential vetoes with a twothirds vote.
- -Has the power over the purse strings to actually fund any executive actions.
- -Impeachment
- -Senate approves treaties.
- -Senate approves presidential appointments

Answer: Yes. If a president vetoes a bill proposed by Congress, then Congress can override the veto with a two-thirds vote.

Answer: Two members to the Senate and any number of Representatives to the House (Depending on the population of the state).

Answer: This case established the right of Congress to create a Bank of the United States.

Answer: They serve for life or until they choose to retire.

Answer: This established the "Separate but Equal" precedent, allowing for racial segregation. It was overturned by Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas.

Answer: The Electoral College

Answer: This requirement, part of due process, was established in the Supreme Court case Miranda v. Arizona.

Answer: Marbury v. Madison

BLUE QUESTION	BLUE QUESTION
Question: How many terms can the President serve?	Question: Did the Federalist Papers support or oppose the writing of the Constitution?
BLUE QUESTION	GROUP QUESTION
Question: Which amendment gave women the right to vote?	Question: The Constitution begins with "We the people". What type of government does this quote refer to?
BLUE QUESTION Question: What is the current legal voting age?	BLUE QUESTION Question: Which branch of government has the power to declare war?
BLUE QUESTION	BLUE QUESTION
Question: According to the clause, states must recognize the legal documents of other states.	Question: What Amendment gave black males the right to vote?
BLUE QUESTION	CONSENSUS QUESTION
Question: What was the purpose of the Declaration of Independence, and when was it adopted?	Question: Which Amendment reduced the voting age to 18? What was the voting age prior to this?

Answer: They supported it.	Answer: Two Terms
Answer: Democracy	Answer: The 19 th Amendment.
Answer: Legislative branch	Answer: 18
Answer: 15 th	Answer: The Full Faith and Credit Clause.
Answer: The 26 th Amendment. Before this Amendment, the voting age was 21.	Answer: The Declaration announced the independence of the United States from Great Britain. It was adopted on July 4, 1776.

CDOUD OUESTION	CDOUD OUESTION
GROUP QUESTION Question: What is meant by the term "popular sovereignty?"	GROUP QUESTION Question: What was the main fear of the Anti- Federalists in relation to the Constitution? What was added to the Constitution to appease this fear?
GROUP QUESTION Question: Explain the difference between reserved powers, concurrent powers, and exclusive powers.	BLUE QUESTION Question: The introduction to the current Constitution is known as what?
BLUE QUESTION Question: Who presides over each of the two Houses of Congress?	GROUP QUESTION Question: In the Declaration of Independence, the rights "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness" are noted. This is a slight adaptation of whose concept of "life, liberty, and property"?
GROUP QUESTION Question: When someone says, "I plead the fifth", what do they mean, and what are the referencing?	BLUE QUESTION Question: The US Congress is "bicameral". What does this mean?
BLUE QUESTION Question: Which Amendment outlawed slavery?	BLUE QUESTION Question: What is gerrymandering?

Answer: The Anti-Federalists thought that the central government would become too powerful. The Bill of Rights (the first 10 Amendments) was added to guarantee certain rights and thereby assuage the fears of the Anti-Federalists.

Answer: Government obtains power from the citizens it governs.

Answer: The Preamble

Answer: Reserved powers are powers given to the states (anything not expressly given to the national government AND not forbidden to the states). Concurrent powers are powers shared by both the state and federal governments. Exclusive powers are given only to the federal government.

Answer: John Locke, a British political thinker.

Answer: The Vice President (the President of the Senate) presides over the Senate. The Speaker of the House presides over the House of Representatives.

Answer: Congress consists of two branches or houses, the House of Representatives and the Senate.

Answer: They are referencing the fifth amendment, meaning that people cannot be forced to testify against oneself. It protects against self-incrimination.

Answer: The manipulation of the boundaries of and electoral constituency such that it is favorable to one party over another.

Answer: The 13th Amendment outlawed slavery.

BLUE QUESTION	RED QUESTION
Question: On what day is the President inaugurated?	Question: The Constitution begins with a Preamble, which is followed by seven parts. What are these parts called?
	•
CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: Who is next in this order of presidential succession: President, Vice President,?	GROUP QUESTION Question: The Vice President presides over the Senate. When does he vote in the Senate?
CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: If there is no majority in the	RED QUESTION Ougstion: Which of the following has NO ago
Electoral College, how is the President selected?	Question: Which of the following has NO age requirement for election/appointment? A) A Representative B) A Senator C) The President D) A Supreme Court Justice
RED QUESTION Question: Which of these is an executive action that does NOT require Senate approval? A) Cabinet Appointments B) Ambassador Appointments C) Presidential Pardon D) Treaties with other nations	RED QUESTION Question: What is the name of an idea for a law?
CONSENSUS QUESTION	RED QUESTION
Question: In the US legal system, a person cannot be imprisoned indefinitely without cause. To this end, there is a principle that requires a person to be brought before a judge to determine if the imprisonment is lawful. What is this legal principle called?	Question: How is the number of Electoral College electors for each state determined?

Answer: The Articles of the Constitution.	Answer: January 20 th
Answer: The Vice President votes in the Senate ONLY when there is a tie amongst the members.	Answer: The Speaker of the House is the third in line to succeed the President.
ONET when there is a the amongst the members.	inira in line to succeed the Frestaent.
Answer: D	Answer: The election would be decided in the House of Representatives, with each Representative having one vote.
Answer: Bill	Answer: C
Answer: The number of Representatives plus the	Answer: A writ of habeas corpus.
number of Senators.

DED OTTOMYST	DED OVERSEVON
RED QUESTION Question: In the Preamble of the Constitution, several reasons for "ordain[ing] and establish[ing]" the Constitution are stated. Name two.	RED QUESTION Question: Which amendment outlawed poll taxes?
RED QUESTION Question: What is addressed in the first Article of the Constitution?	RED QUESTION Question: During the time of the Articles of Confederation, Massachusetts farmers began to burn courthouses to prevent their indebted farms from being seized. Due to the weak national government, Massachusetts had to deal with this incident by themselves. This was one of the events that sparked the calling for a Constitutional Convention. What was the name of this event?
RED QUESTION Question: Which Amendment to the Constitution allows for the creation of a militia and the right to bear arms?	RED QUESTION Question: Which of the following is NOT a power of Congress? Who DOES have that power?
RED QUESTION Question: According to the 10 th Amendment to the Constitution, if a power is not expressly delegated to the national government, nor prohibited to the states, who holds that power?	RED QUESTION Question: Which amendment to the Constitution says that "cruel and unusual punishment" is illegal?
RED QUESTION Question: What is the purpose of the thirteenth amendment?	RED QUESTION Question: Which amendment outlaws "unreasonable search and seizure"?

Answer: 14th

Answer: Any two of the following: 1) to form a more perfect Union; 2) to establish Justice; 3) to insure domestic Tranquility; 4) to provide for the common defense; 5) to promote the general Welfare; 6) to secure the Blessings of Liberty

Answer: Shays' Rebellion.

Answer: The formation and powers of Congress.

Answer: A) To make or write treaties is NOT a power of Congress. The President has the power to make treaties.

Answer: 2nd Amendment

Answer: The 8th Amendment outlaws "cruel and unusual punishment".

Answer: The state governments are given any power not delegated to the national government nor denied to the state governments

Answer: 4th Amendment Answer: Outlaw slavery

CONCENCIA OTIECTION
CONSENSUS QUESTION Ougstion: For a paried of time segregation was Question: For a period of time, segregation was legal within the United States. Legally, it was supported by the idea that as long as the conditions were the same, the facilities could be distinct. What is the name of this doctrine?
CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: Normally, the Vice President
presides over the Senate. However, he does not do so in the case of an impeachment trial of the President. Who does?
RED QUESTION
Question: There are three "unalienable rights" outlined in the Declaration of Independence. What are they?
RED QUESTION
Question: What does the third amendment prohibit?
BLUE QUESTION
Question: True or False: If the two houses of Congress cannot reach a consensus on a bill, each house can send their own version of a bill to the president and he can choose which to sign.

Answer: Separate but Equal	Answer: The Supreme Court has original jurisdiction when a state is one of the litigating parties.
Answer: The Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court presides	Answer: The President
Answer: Life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.	Answer: This clause establishes that federal law is supreme over state law.
Answer: Prohibits the quartering of soldiers in private homes.	Answer: Due Process Clause

Answer: This states that all citizens must be given equal protection under the law.

Answer: False. Both houses must agree on one version of the bill before sending it to the president.

m "Double
m "Haubla in Double iment does er types of ones. What vays been amendment view and grams, and rains, and
)N
ON ate needs to be s action?

Answer: This means that once a person has been tried for a crime, they cannot be tried for the same crime again.	Answer: Only one-third of the seats are up for election at once.
Answer: Limited government	Answer: John Hanson Delegate from Maryland
Answer:17 th	Answer: Joint committees
Answer: Congressional oversight	Answer: Standing committees
Answer: Three-fifths of the full Senate must vote to end the filibuster. This is called "cloture".	Answer: Select Committees OR Special Committees.

BLUE QUESTION	BLUE QUESTION
Question: What is a pocket veto?	Question: What is the process of redrawing electoral district boundaries within states called?
	cancu.
BLUE QUESTION Overstion: What is the obstructive testic used	BLUE QUESTION Oversion: Members of Congress are allowed to
Question: What is the obstructive tactic used by Senators to block legislation by debating it at length?	Question: Members of Congress are allowed to send mail to their constituents without postage. What is this right called?
CONSENSUS QUESTION	BLUE QUESTION
Question: What is a "lame duck" period?	Question: What does the term "incumbent" refer to?
BLUE QUESTION	BLUE QUESTION
Question: Often, legislators will seek to pass legislation that will funnel money to their	Question: If the Vice President is absent during a meeting of the Senate, who presides?
district to appease their constituents. This is	a meeting of the senate, who presides.
commonly in the form of building bridges or the like. What is the term for this type of legislation?
CONSENSUS QUESTION	BLUE QUESTION
Question: Exchange of political favors by	Question: When a candidate is elected to office, legislators, such as trading votes, is known as?	they consider themselves to have the authority to rule. What is the term for this concept?

Answer: Reapportionment.	Answer: If Congress adjourns within the 10 day period a president has to sign a bill into law or to veto it, and the president does nothing, the bill will NOT become law.
Answer: Franking privilege.	Answer: Filibuster
Answer: The existing holder of a political office.	Answer: Period of time between the elections in November and the inauguration of the newly elected officials early the following year.
Answer: The President Pro Tempore.	Answer: Pork barrel legislation
Answer: Mandate	Answer: Logrolling

CONSENSUS QUESTION	BLUE QUESTION
Question: When the federal government	Question: The system elects
transfers power to the state governments, what	the President of the United States, where votes is the process called?	are allotted based on a state's
BLUE QUESTION	BLUE QUESTION
Question: What is the term for powers that are	Question: The Constitution was adopted on not enumerated in the Constitution, but that can	, which is now the day we be inferred from the Constitution?	nationally celebrate as Constitution Day.
BLUE QUESTION	BLUE QUESTION
Question: The president can create rules that	Question: What powers did the executive have the force of law. What are these called?	branch have under the articles of confederation?
BLUE QUESTION	RED QUESTION
Question: The president can form an accord	Question: Article II enumerates the power of
with other countries, similar to a treaty and with	the branch.
the same force, but they do not need to be approved by the Senate. What are these called?
GROUP QUESTION	CONSENSUS QUESTION
Question: What is an example of an executive	Question: The state of did branch check over the legislative branch?	not attend the Constitutional Convention, and was the last to ratify the document in
	·

Answer: Electoral College ,Proportionally, Population	Answer: Devolution
Answer: September 17 th , 1787	Answer: Implied powers
Answer: No power (There was not an executive branch under the articles of confederation.)	Answer: Executive orders.
Answer: Executive	Answer: Executive agreements
Answer: Rhode Island, 1790	Answer: -Enforce laws -Recess appointments -Executive orders -Veto power -Ability to call special sessions of CongressCan recommend legislationCan appeal to the people concerning legislation and more.

RED QUESTION Question: The first political parties emerged following the Constitutional Convention, where supported a strong central government while supported a weaker central government.	GROUP QUESTION Question: Can a presidential veto be overridden? If so, how?
CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: Who is called the Father of the Constitution?	RED QUESTION Question: Which amendment gave women the right to vote?
RED QUESTION Question: What is the only amendment to be repealed (can be answered with the name OR number)?	RED QUESTION Question: Which branch of government has the power to declare war?
RED QUESTION Question: What is the purpose of each of the three branches of government?	RED QUESTION Question: According to the clause, states must recognize the legal documents of other states.
RED QUESTION Question: How is the number of members each state can send to each house of Congress determined?	RED QUESTION Question: Which Amendment outlawed slavery?

Answer: Yes. If a president vetoes a bill proposed by Congress, then Congress can override the veto with a two-thirds vote.	Answer: Federalist, Anti-Federalist (or Jeffersonian Republicans)
Answer: The 19 th Amendment.	Answer: James Madison
Answer: Legislative branch	Answer: Prohibition, the 18 th amendment.
Answer: The Full Faith and Credit Clause.	Answer: The legislature makes the laws, the executive enforces the laws, and the judiciary interprets the laws.
Answer: 13th	Answer: Two members to the Senate and any number of Representatives to the House (Depending on the population of the state).

RED QUESTION	RED QUESTION
Question: On what day is the President inaugurated?	Question: True or False: If the two houses of Congress cannot reach a consensus on a bill, each house can send their own version of a bill to the president and he can choose which to sign.
RED QUESTION Question: Which of the following has NO age requirement for election/appointment? A) A Representative B) A Senator C) The President D) A Supreme Court Justice	RED QUESTION Question: Sometimes there is a need for a Congressional committee that is not already in existence. These can conduct studies or investigations; they can also consider bills. They can be permanent or temporary. What are they called?
RED QUESTION Question: In the Preamble of the Constitution, several reasons for "ordain[ing] and establish[ing]" the Constitution are stated. Name two.	RED QUESTION Question: Often, legislators will seek to pass legislation that will funnel money to their district to appease their constituents. This is commonly in the form of building bridges or the like. What is the term for this type of legislation?
RED QUESTION Question: Which amendment outlawed poll taxes?	RED QUESTION Question: If the Vice President is absent during a meeting of the Senate, who presides?
RED QUESTION Question: What is the equal protection clause?	RED QUESTION Question: The president can form an accord with other countries, similar to a treaty and with the same force, but they do not need to be approved by the Senate. What are these called?

Answer: False. Both houses must agree on one version of the bill before sending it to the president.	Answer: January 20th
Answer: Select Committees OR Special Committees	Answer: D
Answer: Pork barrel legislation	Answer: Any two of the following: 1) to form a more perfect Union; 2) to establish Justice; 3) to insure domestic Tranquility; 4) to provide for the common defense; 5) to promote the general Welfare; 6) to secure the Blessings of Liberty
Answer: The President Pro Tempore.	Answer: 14th
Answer: Executive agreements	Answer: This states that all citizens must be given equal protection under the law.

GROUP QUESTION Question: What is an example of a judicial branch check over the executive branch?	CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: Which House of Congress must all taxation bills originate from?
RED QUESTION Question: Large states like Pennsylvania and Virginia favored this plan: It allotted votes based on	RED QUESTION Question: How can an amendment be changed?
RED QUESTION Question: Small states like New Jersey and Connecticut favored this plan: It advocated for representation.	RED QUESTION Question: What is judicial review?
CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: Name the two future Presidents who signed the Constitution.	CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: Name two political writings (And their authors) that influenced the Constitution.
RED QUESTION Question: What are checks and balances?	CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: Sometimes a President will not sign a bill, nor will they veto it. When the President does nothing, what happens to the bill?

Answer: The House of Representatives	Answer: -Judges cannot be removed from office by the executiveJudicial review
Answer: A new amendment changes it.	Answer: Virginia Plan, Population
Answer: The doctrine under which the judicial branch can review the actions of the legislative and executive branch and possibly rule them "unconstitutional".	Answer: New Jersey Plan, Equally regardless of population.
Answer: -The Spirit of Law – Montesquieu -Social Contract – Jean Jacques Rousseau -Two Treaties of Government – John Locke	Answer: -George Washington -James Madison
Answer: If the President has taken no action on a bill presented within 10 days, then it becomes law.	Answer: A system that allows each branch of government the ability to stop acts of another branch.

DED OVERSEVON	DATE OF ECLEVON
RED QUESTION	BLUE QUESTION
Question: A president is only allowed to veto a	Question: Federalism calls for a division of bill in its entirety; They cannot veto specific	power between state and national governments.
sections of the bill while signing the rest of it into	Sometimes, state and federal laws conflict. In law. What is this illegal action called?	such cases, which law is supreme?
CONSENSUS QUESTION	GROUP QUESTION
Question: Nationwide, how many electoral	Question: Explain the principle of federalism.
votes are there? How many votes does someone	Question: Explain the principle of feueransm.
need to be elected president?
need to be elected president.
RED QUESTION	BLUE QUESTION
Question: The membership of the House of	Question: What is the system of giving each
Representatives is determined by proportional	branch of government a degree of oversight over representation. What tool counts the population	the other branches?
to reapportion the House and how often is this done?
RED QUESTION	GROUP QUESTION
Question: What is the name of the procedure	Question: What are the three requirements to
_	1 =
for removing an individual from an	run for U.S. House of Representatives? office/position of power within the federal government?
CDOID OHECTION	CONCENCIA OHECTION
GROUP QUESTION	CONSENSUS QUESTION
Question: What is "ex post facto"? Is it legal?	Question: How many states are needed to ratify the Constitution? How many did ratify it?

Answer: Federal law is supreme over state law.	Answer: Line-item veto
Answer: Federalism is the term for the division of power between the state and national governments.	Answer: There are 538 electoral votes; 270 are needed to win the presidential election.
Answer: Checks and Balances	Answer: The Census counts the population; it is conducted once every ten years.
Answer: - They must be at least 25 years old They must be a citizen for at least 7 years They must live in the state and district they want to represent.	Answer: The impeachment process.
Answer: Nine states were needed to ratify the constitution. Initially 11 states ratified it; after Washington was inaugurated, North Carolina and Rhode Island also ratified it.	Answer: Ex post facto law refers to a law making an act illegal after the act occurred, such that the person who committed the act may be prosecuted. It is not legal.

GROUP QUESTION
Question: You are examining the New Jersey Plan and the Virginia Plan. Thinking of the organization of our current government, how would you resolve these differences to give each state what they want?
·
DI HE OHEGTION
BLUE QUESTION
Question: When and where did the Constitutional Convention begin?
· ·
DI HE OHEGTION
BLUE QUESTION
Question: The first political parties emerged following the Constitutional Convention, where supported a strong central government while supported
a weaker central government.
a weaker central government.
BLUE QUESTION
-
Question: The elects the
Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are Question: The elects the
Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are
Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are
Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are
Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are
Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are
Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are
Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are
Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are allotted based on a state's
Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are allotted based on a state's CONSENSUS QUESTION
Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are allotted based on a state's CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: What is Constitutional clause that
Question: The elects the President of the United States, where votes are allotted based on a state's CONSENSUS QUESTION
Question: Theelects the President of the United States, where votes are allottedbased on a state's CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: What is Constitutional clause that permits the legislative branch to pass specific
Question: Theelects the President of the United States, where votes are allottedbased on a state's CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: What is Constitutional clause that permits the legislative branch to pass specific laws to carry out its broadly defined
Question: Theelects the President of the United States, where votes are allottedbased on a state's CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: What is Constitutional clause that permits the legislative branch to pass specific
Question: Theelects the President of the United States, where votes are allottedbased on a state's CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: What is Constitutional clause that permits the legislative branch to pass specific laws to carry out its broadly defined
Question: Theelects the President of the United States, where votes are allottedbased on a state's CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: What is Constitutional clause that permits the legislative branch to pass specific laws to carry out its broadly defined
Question: Theelects the President of the United States, where votes are allottedbased on a state's CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: What is Constitutional clause that permits the legislative branch to pass specific laws to carry out its broadly defined
Question: Theelects the President of the United States, where votes are allottedbased on a state's CONSENSUS QUESTION Question: What is Constitutional clause that permits the legislative branch to pass specific laws to carry out its broadly defined

Answer: You should come up with what was known as the Connecticut Compromise or also known as the Great Compromise of 1787, it established the legislative representation we have today. The legislative branch was split into two houses, where the upper house, the Senate, would be comprised of equal representation for each state, and the lower house, the House of Representative, would be by population.

Answer: In the Philadelphia State House, May 1787.

Answer: Federalist, Anti-Federalist

Answer: Electoral College ,Proportionally, Population

Answer: The Elastic clause.